

THE ART GLASS ACADEMY

LEARN TO THINK IN GLASS AND UNLOCK THE FULL POTENTIAL OF YOUR CREATIVITY!

COURSE: ARTISTIC POSSIBILITIES IN BLOWN GLASS

Imagine being able to shape molten glass into unique works of art that captivate and speak to your audience. The Art Glass Academy invites you on this artistic journey where you not only master the technical skills of glassworking but also unlock the full potential of your creativity. Whether you're a designer, artist, or visual arts student, this is your opportunity to elevate your expertise to an international level.

MEET OUR INSTRUCTORS

Master Glassblower Kari Alakoski is a living legend with over 50 years of experience working with glass. His work blends the traditions of Nordic glass factory techniques with Italian studio glass methods. Kari has taught hundreds of glassblowers and collaborated on countless projects with artists. His sharp teaching methods reveal the mysteries of glassworking.

Glass Artist Marja Hepo-aho is a visionary and trailblazer in her field, having transformed glass art for 20 years. Her works have been exhibited around the globe, from Hong Kong to Venice and New York. Now, she shares her passion for glass with her students. Marja's deep knowledge of rare glass techniques will inspire you to expand your artistic expression.

The course also features leading industry experts and partners who will help you find your own unique path in the world of glass art.

WHAT WE OFFER YOU

Under the guidance of our expert instructors, you'll learn the secrets of glassmaking step by step through our online courses. From foundational techniques to advanced methods, you'll gain everything you need to create unique, impactful works of art — while also saving on production costs for your pieces.

- Learn how to communicate your vision clearly to professional glassblowers
- Develop expressive works where glass naturally integrates with your art
- Discover innovative ways to manage your artistic process and make glass art financially viable.

With us, you'll gain technical, artistic, and business knowledge of the glass world, enabling you to take your art further than ever before.

WHO WE WORK WITH

For decades, we've collaborated with designers, professional artists, and glassmaking schools. Now, we're bringing our expertise online to support a new generation of creative professionals. Whether you're seeking new ways to use glass in your work or are already an experienced professional, our course is designed specifically for you.

WHAT YOU ACHIEVE WITH US

By the end of your studies, you will have:

- A clear vision of where you want to take your art and how glass can enrich your work
- The ability to communicate and collaborate with master glassblowers to bring your ideas to life
- Mastery of the artistic process with glass, from concept to execution
- Established important relationships with professionals in the glass industry
- The knowledge to manage and market your own work on an international stage

HOW WE DO IT

Our six-month online course is tailored for artists and designers. It's an interactive, in-depth experience that will guide you into the fascinating world of glass. You'll have access to all of our expertise and receive support in developing your own work with glass.

Once the course is complete, all materials remain available to you permanently, allowing you to revisit them for future projects.

Your journey begins here. We're here to help you rise to the top of the glass art world!

HOW TO JOIN

Are you ready to take your art to the next level? Explore the course in detail at www.theartglassacademy.com

and sign up today. Start your journey to mastering glass art now!

KEY COURSE CONTENT

Artistic Possibilities in Blown Glass

I. Fundamentals

- Art glass and design in modern contexts, multi-media integration
- Artist-glassblower collaboration

II. Technical Skills

- The basics of glassmaking
- Advanced glass techniques

III. Professional Glassmaking

- Technical mastery
- Artistic glass concepts
- Glass industry economics
- Business operations
- Clients and marketing

IV. Extras

- Expert lectures
- Artist interviews

START NOW

Glass offers limitless possibilities. Follow us on Instagram @theartglassacademy and explore behind-the-scenes content as well as insights from our partners.

Take the next step and turn your artistic vision into reality at www.theartglassacademy.com.

